Introduction and Welcome

American Pacific International School on-campus residence is for international students in grades 5-12. We are a small facility and this allows residential advisors to develop close relationships with students as they navigate their way through their pre-teen and teenage years and pursue their educational goals at American Pacific International School.

The residential facility consists of Sakthong House and Inthanon House. Within the school grounds is a soccer field, basketball courts, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Each residence has a residential advisors apartment, which helps create a family environment. The residences contain a kitchen, common room and bedrooms with shared bathroom facilities. Wireless internet service is available for residential students.

Residential advisors are committed to making students' living environment safe, friendly, warm and caring.

They strive to make American Pacific International School more than just a place to sleep and study; they want it to be a second home to residential students.

They hope students will feel comfortable interacting with residential advisors and contributing to make

American Pacific International School an ideal community. Residential Advisors expect behaviors of students to be conducive to a group-living situation.

The Residential Life Family Handbook outlines the expectations and policies by which the rules are fairly enforced, to promote respect for each person's welfare and property. Students are expected to put forward their best efforts academically and to practice self-discipline, sound judgment, and good manners.

The residence is an excellent option for students from a variety of backgrounds. Some students have parents living in Thailand. Other students come from a variety of countries in Asia and the United States. For students whose parents do not live in Thailand, HR will assist students in obtaining a visa once the student has been accepted into the residence.

Additionally, the residence is a great stepping stone for senior students who may need more independence from their families, while still being closely supervised, before they take the big leap to the freedoms of college life.

We welcome you to your new home at American Pacific International School. The residence is your place to retreat, study and relax. We hope your days at American Pacific International School will be a memorable living and learning experience!

Residential Life: What we advocate

Living together in a group is very different from living at home and it takes some getting used to. The four main rules for living together are:

1. TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF

Taking care of yourself includes a lot of things; some are listed below:

- Eat well, exercise, get enough sleep
- Plan your time and use it wisely
- Take care of your personal belongings
- Be confident
- Ask for help/advice from the RAs

2. TAKE CARE OF EACH OTHER

If we are going to live together peacefully, we must work to take care of each other.

Some of the ways we do this are:

- Help each other
- Be kind to each other
- Always say “please” and “thank you”
- Let the people you live with know that you care about them
- Respect each other. Listen, share and take turns

3. TAKE CARE OF THIS PLACE/SPACE

Your room, your house, your school, your country, our planet—is the only place you have. If you take care of our place, there is no mess left behind. If you make a mess, it is your responsibility to clean up. Use the facilities with respect. If there is a breakage please report it.

4. HAVE FUN

Living at school isn't just about studying at a desk. It is about:

- having new experiences
- broadening your horizons
- Making friends
- Getting involved in clubs and activities
- Taking advantage of all the opportunities available and stay positive

Remember, this experience will be what you make of it, so make it memorable!!

General Information

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Residential students are supported through a supervised Study Hall which is held 5 nights a week. Study Hall is supervised by the Residential Advisor and a teacher is in attendance to help mentor each student. Residential Advisors are assigned specific students to monitor their academic progress and give support. Residential Advisors attend conferences if parents are unable to do so and give a brief report to the parents.

ELECTRONICS (All electronic devices:phones, computers, tablets, smartwatches etc)

Cell phone and electronic usage has become a large part of society and we understand the need for students to stay in touch with their families. The fair use of phones will be determined by the school. All students through grade 10 are required to turn their phones in, as well as all electronics, each night at set times. It is requested that parents not contact their children during study hall and bedtime hours. Students are not to use their phones at dinner in the cafeteria and at meals on the weekend.

Chromebooks are being used by our students G5 - G10 as a part of the PYP and MYP program. These web-based notebooks are programmed by the school and limit students' usage of various websites. Students should not bring other laptops to school. Internet access is provided by the school and the priority is for students to complete their homework.

Note: APIS does not assume responsibility for such things as personal computers, cell phones, MP3 players, or other electronic devices.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

English is the language of instruction at APIS and it's the common language among everyone. In order for your child to become proficient we ask that all students speak English while in the common areas within the residential program. We understand there may be a need for clarification in their own language and this is permissible.

FOOD

The menu offered at APIS is a mixture of Asian and Western food. At each meal an array of options are offered including several main dishes, fresh fruit and a salad bar. We also have vegetarian and vegan options. There are many opportunities throughout the day when meals may be supplemented with healthy snacks. Students have the option to purchase other snacks at our school shop during weekday lunch times. Students can bring their own condiments to meals but are not allowed to take any food, plates, bowls, or utensils from the dining hall. All students are to attend all meals. Soft drinks are not to be consumed in residence. No energy drinks are to be bought.

HEALTH SERVICE

There is a full-time resident school nurse on campus 24 hours a day 7 days a week, who attends to routine or minor illnesses. Students will be taken to the hospital or a medical clinic as needed. All medicines / prescription drugs must be declared to the nurses and residential staff. Students are not allowed to carry any medication with them or keep any medication in their rooms unless prior distribution is authorized by the nurse. If a student feels sick, night or day, they need to contact the RA who will then contact the nurse. In an emergency during the evening or night, students should contact the residential staff member on duty first. Each house has a small medical kit available for minor issues.

HOMESICKNESS

Students who are new to residential life may have a difficult time adapting or settling in. This is referred to as homesickness. Parents are able to assist their children going through this homesickness phase by doing the following:

- Prepare your child before coming, reassure them they are loved, will make friends, will be cared for, and listened to
- When dropping your child off, don't extend the good-byes
- Bring sentimental items, such as photographs and favorite items
- Tell your child that they will be staying here; don't give them the option of going home if they don't like it initially
- Limit call times in the first few weeks. This will help them make friends and join in with the activities. Decide on a good time to call based on their daily schedules and bedtimes
- Ensure that your child has updated and correct contact details in case of an emergency
- Support staff decisions and work with staff to ensure the happiness and well-being of your child. Parental involvement is crucial.

LAUNDRY

A laundry service is available and students can utilize this service. Laundry is collected and returned 2 times per week, on Tuesday and Fridays. Students will put their laundry bags in the designated areas and will pick up their clean clothes on the following laundry day. Those students sending their laundry are to fill out the itemized checklist, otherwise the laundry shop cannot take responsibility for any lost clothes. All clothing should have your name clearly written on them.

There is a laundry room available equipped with washing and drying machines and an iron and ironing board. Assistance will be provided for those residents unfamiliar with using the machines. Students who use these facilities need to have their own supply of washing powder and fabric softener.

The demand to use the machines is particularly high over weekends. It is important that students plan when they need to do their laundry to avoid running out of clean clothes. It's strongly suggested that students mark their clothes with their name. No washing or drying shoes in the machines.

Parents and adult visitors at campus

When parents or adult visitors come to the campus they should check in with security then go to Building A. The staff there will contact the residential staff who will accompany them on their visit.

LEAVING CAMPUS

Students may go off campus with someone other than their guardian or parent for weekends if they have the following information completed by Wednesday at 8:00 p.m.

1. Parent permission must be given to Residential Director (RD) by email, text, Line, Wechat, etc.
2. Host family permission must be given to RD by email, text, Line, Wechat, etc.
The RD will communicate the list of residential students leaving campus by Thursday morning to the School Director
3. *All residential students who leave campus MUST be picked up by his/her family or the host family and signed out in building A
4. Students must return to campus by Sunday at 8:00 p.m. unless the RD is otherwise informed.
5. If a student is taking a hail taxi service(eg. Grab) they are to use the share feature and send it to the on duty staff member.

When leaving with a parent / guardian, we require a minimum of 24-hour notice.

All transportation is the responsibility of the host family and/or parent.

WEEKLY RESIDENTS STAYING ON CAMPUS

Weekly residents may stay on campus for the weekend if arrangements are made two days in advance with residential staff. The students requesting to stay should let the RA know and they will inform the Residential Director. Students will be charged a fee as agreed by the school. Students that stay on campus for academic purposes or for functions arranged by the school can remain on campus (free of charge) but with prior arrangement.

LIVING IN A RESIDENTIAL SETTING

Students may share a bedroom and a bathroom with others of the same gender. They will be provided with a bed and bedding, a chest of drawers, closet space, shelf space, a towel rack, and shoe rack. A plastic box is provided to store snacks. Areas inside the house and outside are available for play. In addition, students have access to a television.

On campus there are tennis and basketball courts as well as soccer fields and a covered gym. The school has a pool and students are allowed to use it as long as there is adult supervision.

WEEKENDS

On Fridays there are no after school activities and no study hall. On Saturdays all students are required to participate in a morning activity. These activities vary each quarter. Residential Advisors encourage students to get some form of exercise, on both Saturday and Sunday. Also, on weekends bedtimes are slightly later and students have the opportunity to relax, play, and exercise. There is also an outing each Saturday. These vary weekly to appeal to the different ages and genders.

AFTER SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

After school activities are run through 3 seasons of the year. They are on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. All students sign up for an activity that they wish to do. Sign up is on a first come basis. They are interesting, educational, physical, art/craft and all designed to offer your child a greater learning experience.

MONEY MATTERS

As a resident at APIS, students will need money for various items and for outings. Students need to keep their money in the school bank and withdraw it as needed. Parents can send money to their child's account when needed from their private bank. This money should be treated as pocket money or an allowance. Grade 5-6 and EA students have a withdrawal limit of 300 baht per week and Grade 7 – 9 students a limit of 500 baht per week. If a student needs extra money, parents must contact the RA and the Business Manager.

NOTE: The school can only take responsibility for money deposited in the school bank. Please remind your child to not keep large sums of money on their person or in their rooms.

If you would like to transfer money into either your student's school bank or misc. account, here is the school's banking information. Please make sure to put your child's name on the transfer information.

PUBLIC DISPLAY OF AFFECTION

As an international school, APIS has many cultures that coexist. Therefore, it is important for students to demonstrate behavior in their interpersonal relationships that is acceptable to people of various cultural and religious backgrounds and beliefs.

- Public displays of romantic affection on campus, on school transportation, and at school-sponsored activities, regardless of sexual orientation, are not acceptable
- Examples of unacceptable displays of romantic affection include, but are not limited to: kissing, hugging, intimate body contact, and other prolonged touching
- Students are expected to show good taste and conduct themselves respectfully at all times
- Inappropriate displays of affection and engagement in inappropriate relationships are unacceptable at APIS
- Students in a same-sex relationship are not allowed in one another's bedrooms
- Possible discipline may be incurred

PETS

Pets of any kind are not allowed in the residential houses or on campus.

STUDENT VOICE

Students may put forward ideas to improve our service or help the school, raise any concerns and have the opportunity to be heard through the student voice form accessible throughout the school.

OUTINGS/ADVENTURES

Each year the residential staff, along with input from students, put together a weekend outing calendar. These outings are planned with age and gender in mind. On occasions outings are separated between the ages and genders. Some of our outings are to places such as: local museums, botanical gardens, ice skating, etc. We have also taken the students to places such as a pottery supply business and they were allowed to make sculptures and use the spinning wheel. These outings are meant to bring the students together and build relationships among the residential students as well as being fun and educational.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL AND SUITCASES

Parents are strongly encouraged for air travel to and from school to have their children aged under 15 to travel as unaccompanied minors. This costs nothing and gives parents peace of mind that your child will be supervised and assisted throughout their journey. Once students return from their breaks, we ask that they unpack their suitcases immediately. Their suitcases will be stored in the storage room in each house. These storage rooms will be locked until students need them.

Residential Living

Information, and Expectations

Our students have their own rooms with residential staff living in quarters nearby. They also share a spacious bathroom. All residents share the downstairs common area where students can watch TV, play board games, or read a book. They may also prepare snacks in the kitchen which is equipped with a stove, oven, microwave, fridge and sink.

This is a home away from home, with staff attending to the needs of the whole child, not just the student. The staff is in close communication with teachers to ensure that residential students are well-supported in fulfilling their academic responsibilities. Besides academic support, we also help students develop the skills they need to succeed in life. From teaching our students to manage their time well and eat healthy, to getting enough sleep and attending enriching cultural activities. As a family, we also want to help students get along with their fellow housemates. The Residential Advisors will help students develop good decision making skills and practice good habits that will prepare them for the challenges of high school and beyond.

It is the goal of students in their high school years to further develop their independence and identities as young adults. Additionally, as an international school serving a wide range of cultures, we prioritize the development of tolerance, respect, and acceptance of each other. We also assist students in developing other qualities necessary to become responsible members of their communities, such as taking initiative, self-management, making healthy choices, taking well-considered risks, learning to communicate effectively, and accepting responsibility. In the high school houses, we feel that we have been successful if we have produced students that are fully prepared to face the next chapter in their lives.

ROUTINES

Mornings:

After wake-up, Students are expected to make their beds, tidy their rooms and be in the common room before 7:45 a.m. They are to leave the house by 7:50 a.m. Everything they need for the day should be taken with them as they are not allowed to return to the house during the school day

After School:

Students come back to the house after school and check in with staff on duty and change from their uniforms into casual clothes. On Mondays and Fridays, when students are not engaged in afterschool activities, the RA's may lead the students in an activity. Students must inform residential staff of their whereabouts at all times.

Study Hall:

Students will have staff/teacher assisted study hall from Sunday to Thursday. Students are expected to use their time wisely and complete all of their school work. If they finish their school work early, they should read or participate in English activities.

Bedtime:

Students need to tidy up after themselves before bedtime. Students should manage their time so that showers, laundry, etc. are taken care of before quiet time.

GENERAL

Community living:

Living in a residential setting with other students can be a wonderful, yet trying experience. Students will learn to live together respectfully and in cooperation with each other. Respect for each other and each others' belongings is one of our highest priorities. Students are expected to use respectful language and tone of voice when speaking to other students and to adults. They are also expected to honor each other's space and privacy. Respect one another by asking before borrowing anything. Students are not allowed to hurt others physically or verbally, or to damage others property.

Electronics :

There are restrictions on the use of these items. Overuse can interfere with making friends, getting enough exercise, and participating in other activities. We also encourage the positive use of electronics as learning tools.

Food:

Students are expected to be on time for meals. Foods like instant noodles and Congee are not everyday food and residential staff will monitor their consumption. Healthy snacks will always be available in the house, and students can keep personal snacks in their snack boxes. Students are expected to clean up after themselves and wash their dishes. Eating is allowed only in the kitchen.

House Responsibilities:

Students are expected to tidy up after themselves at all times. Also turn off fans, lights, and AC when not in the room.

Language:

Students need to use English in the residential setting. We have many students who struggle with understanding and speaking English and we want to encourage them at every opportunity to practice. We want everyone to feel included and when students don't speak English in the common areas, it can leave others out. Students are expected to use respectful language and tone at all times.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM YOUR RESIDENTIAL ADVISOR

Students regularly interact with the Residential Advisors. As APIS care givers, we strive to create a caring, safe, nurturing environment for all students. We believe that learning to follow rules and respect others is part of a person's education. You can expect us to be fair, treat students with respect, and listen to their questions, concerns, and views. As in a home, Residential Advisors may periodically need to enter the rooms when students are not there to be sure the air conditioning or lights are off, windows are locked, etc. If Residential Advisors have reasonable evidence that you are violating the expectations of APIS residential, we may search the room with the student present.

WHAT IS EXPECTED FROM YOU

We believe that our expectations for students' behavior reflects the expectations of most parents. While we would like to view discipline as a learning experience and give students a chance to correct their mistakes, some actions are very serious and must be treated as such. To keep parents informed of their child's ability to follow dorm policies, Residential Report Cards will be sent to parents at the end of each quarter and on an as needed basis for the rest of the year. Most students are able to adapt to a group living situation and function successfully. If someone is unable to adapt, Residential Advisors will work with him/her; but if the situation does not improve, we may ask a student to leave Residential and make other living arrangements.

Sign-out Policy

Residential Students Arrival and Departure Policy

All residential students must make their travel arrangements so that they are at school until the last day of each term.

Students are required to return to APIS the day before each term starts. This allows enough time for students to settle back into their rooms, unpack and be well rested and ready for classes the following day. If students need to arrive back on campus early permission must be granted in advance from the Residential Director as boarding staff supervision will have to be arranged. Student's academic record is affected if they are leaving early or coming back late.

Residential students flying in or out will only be delivered or collected from the airport the day school finishes and the day after school finishes and, the day before school starts and the first day of school. Early or late departures or arrivals will need to make their own way to school.

Residential facilities close at 6:00 P.M. the day after school has been dismissed. We reopen at noon the day before the school resumes. All students should return before 10:00 P.M. All students must submit their travel plans to the Residential Director at least a week in advance. Arriving or leaving by:

CAR - dates of arrival and departure and approximate time of collection and return.

AIR - date of departure and arrival, flight number and times of flights

CONCLUSION

This handbook describes how American Pacific International School Residential Life Program is managed. The procedures are designed to make living away from home as pleasant as possible. The Residential Advisors and school counselor are here to help students adjust to their new home. Evening study time gives you a regular period of peace and quiet. Free hours allow time for enjoying the many on and off campus recreational and cultural activities. Living away from home, especially for the first time, is often a very difficult experience, yet it usually evolves into an important period of personal growth. Often very close friendships form which last for many years. We hope students make the most of this unique opportunity to get a great education while living in the American Pacific International School residence.
