Remark:

- Residential: Different accommodation arrangements are made by gender.
 - Weekly board means Monday morning to Friday evening.
 - Boarding fee includes 3 meals a day and snacks.
 - Students from G7-G12 may choose to use the school washing machine for their own laundry at no cost. Detergent is the student's responsibility.
- Registration deposit G5–G6 50,000 Baht G7–G12 80,000 Baht is included in the tuition, non-refundable and deducted from 2nd semester tuition, and payable upon acceptance for new students. For returning students, the deposit is due and payable by June 1st.
- Application fee is one-off payment and non-refundable. Payable when application is submitted.
- Entrance fee is one-off payment and non-refundable. Payable upon acceptance.
- Miscellaneous account is deposited money by parents to cover educational field trips, a copy of the Yearbook (1,000 Baht) for each family each year, a headphone (Grade 5 and 6), educational equipment and material use. Uniforms may also be paid for out of this account. Any money remaining when a student leaves the school is returned after the accountant is sure that all expenses have been covered.
 - Grades 11 and 12 Miscellaneous Fee: include costs for the IB Diploma Programme - covering exam fees, essential resources, and other charges from the International Baccalaureate to ensure comprehensive support for students' academic success.

PLEASE NOTE: Based on students individual needs there may be times during the year that the miscellaneous fund may need to have extra funds added by the parent.
- Chromebook fee (Grades 5-6) is for the chromebook equipped with an APIS chromebook license, ensuring safe internet access and blocking inappropriate content. The Chromebook serves as a critical learning tool, tailored for secure and productive use in the classroom. Students in Grades 5-6 are required to purchase a Chromebook from the school.
- Classroom Without Walls (CWW) is a compulsory program to further promote and develop learning outside the classroom. There is an annual Classroom Without Walls week for G7–G11. G12 travels after final exams in May. The fee varies based on year level.

Additional Fees:

- English Language Learning (ELL) is an additional education support program for students from G5 whose native language is not English. This additional support program need will be determined by the classroom teacher, the ELL teacher and the administration, based on classroom performance and formalized assessments. The fee is non-refundable for any withdrawal before the school year ends.
